ORDER:-

In the reference 1st read above the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in its orders dated: 20.01.2015 in I.A. Nos. 127-129/2014 in Civil Appeal No(s) 1867/2006 directed the High Court of Judicature at Hyderabad for the State of Telangana and the State of Andhra Pradesh to proceed with the recruitment of which already initiated and also which they would initiate in future.

2. In W.P. © No. 403/2014, the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India by its order dated. 7.7.2014 granted status-quo order as of that day calling for options from the Judicial Officers for allocation to the Successor States.

3. Pursuant to the above directions, the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature for the State of Telangana and Andhra Pradesh notified on 05.02.2015 for conducting screening test for 97 posts of Civil Judge (Junior Division) will be on 08.03.2015 (Sunday). Subsequently on 09.02.2015, a Notification was also issued notifying 34 vacancies of Civil Judge (Junior Division) in the Andhra Pradesh State Judicial Service.

4. In the reference 2nd read above, the Telangana Advocates Joint Action Committee, Hyderabad inter-alia stated that the notifications issued by the High Court stated above, would cause injustice to the Advocates of State of Telangana if separate cadre is not created for the State of Telangana and the vacancies are not arrived in respect of each category of posts.

5. Government after careful examination of the matter decided to approach the Hon'ble Supreme Court with a request to recall or modify or review the orders dated 20.01.2015 in I.A. Nos. 127-129/2014 in Civil Appeal No(s) 1867/2006 and to vacate the status-quo orders in W.P. © No. 403/2014.

6. Accordingly permission is accorded to the learned Advocate General to appear before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and to engage the Attorney General or Solicitor General or to engage any Senior Counsel in Supreme Court of India to defend the State in the matter.

7. The Law (OP Claims) Department shall take necessary action.

8. This order issues with the concurrence of Finance (EBS.VI) Department, vide their U.O.No.2090/18/A2/2015, dated:20-02-2015.
